

Assignment 2

Product Review website:

For a product review website, there should be at 10 different pages with at least 10 different products.

Main page:

The main page should contain all links to different products.

Product page:

The product page should contain description, price, picture, review of customer, and anything else you want to list. The grade will be given more if there are more details.

Coding:

The website can be written using HTML, CSS (Javascript if you can know).